SPIRITUAL COLLECTIVISM

Well begun is half done" yes! We believe that along with human efforts Divine assistance is very important.

On February 21st, parents, and students of Class XII at Rockford Main Campus, witnessed a Devine ceremony (pooja) filled with Blessings, Hope, and Enlightenment. The pooja began at 7.30 am and ended at 9.00am.

All our 12th Graders received their Board Exam Hall Tickets and a memento from the School Correspondent, Ms. Shanmugapriya. Parents, Teachers, and Management blessed the Rockfordians. Students were filled with confident and a great sense of responsibility and energy. Parents and students enjoyed the Prasad, and breakfast which were served after the pooja. Let us continue to pray for the students of classes X&XII to achieve great success in their life.

BEST WISHES ON THIS MOMENTOUS OCCASION!!!

SEWA PROGRAMME

Class: III & IV

Mental disorders can begin in childhood. Examples include anxiety disorders, attention-deficit/hyperactivity disorder (ADHD), autism spectrum disorder, depression and other mood disorders, eating disorders, and post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD).

Today we the children of class III and IV had visited "ABALA HOMES" mentally ill women and children we spent some valuable time with them by dancing and sharing lunch with them. Encouraged them to sing or dance by giving some gifts and prizes they felt very happy. It will be a memorable day for those children.

Values learned:

- *Should treat them with love and care.
- *Spend time with them by doing enjoyable activities.
- *Acknowledge and respect them.

TALENT SHOWS - 2024

Talent shows play a vital role in nurturing self-esteem, confidence, and assurance as a means to encourage self-expression, social skills development, and fostering positive attributes like self-motivation. Regular talent shows contribute to enhancing students' self-confidence, communication, interpersonal skills, and the ability to motivate others. Furthermore, participating in such events helps children become quick thinkers, master anxiety, express new emotions, and see the world from a broader perspective, ultimately boosting their self-esteem.

The talent search show at the school on February 5th, 2024, was a success! It's encouraging that students not only participated enthusiastically but also displayed confidence and performed well across various events. Celebrating and recognizing their talents can foster a positive and supportive school environment.

SAVITRIBAI PHULE

Savitribai Phule was a famous social reformer, poet and educator of nineteenth century India. She is known for her immense contributions to women's education, fighting gender and caste issues, and being a fearless, free woman in general despite the restrictions women faced during her time. She is generally regarded as the mother of Indian feminism. Her contributions to women's education and emancipation are commendable and serve as an inspiration to young women even today. Savitribai Phule was born on January 3, 1831 in Satara district of Maharashtra. Married to 13-year-old Jyoti Rao Phule at the age of ten. Jyoti Rao educated his wife at home. After her education, she did not start educating the girls around. She believed that only through education, the lives of girls can be saved. Home is her first school, husband Jyotiba is her teacher. In 1847, Savitribai trained as a teacher at Mrs. Mitchell's Normal School. He was 17 years old then. Thus she became the first trained teacher in Maharashtra. Between 1848 and 1852, the Phule couple opened 18 schools. Savitribai was to take charge of the administration of these schools. She helped Jyotibaphule by handling the tasks of teacher, conductor, headmistress etc. His work was thoroughly reviewed and appreciated by the British Government.
